Passage: Read the passage and answer the questions.

Bill Gates is a very important person in the computer industry. He has been the head of Microsoft Company for many years. He's also the richest person in America. How did he do it? He learned a lot from his parents. While Bill was going to school, his father went to college, got a degree, and became a successful teacher. From this, he learned that you have to work hard if you want something. His mother was a very busy teacher, but she also enjoyed travelling. From this, he learned that if you want to work hard and enjoy yourself at the same time, you have to make a program.

When Bill was young, he devoted a lot of time to reading. But his childhood was not all work. He played a lot of sports. When he got older, he worked and played on computer for a long time. Before he was 20, Bill developed the world's first computer language for the personal computers. He thought that every home was going to have a computer, every computer would "require" software. He said, "I am going to make my first million dollars on software by the time I am 25" and he did "it".

43. Which one is not correct about Bill Gates?
